

Our Calderbank site required major alterations to prepare it for lease or sale; these included demolishing some large offices, asbestos removal, extensive concreting works in the existing yard to maximise vehicle movement, plus major alterations to the existing warehouse. All the works were carried out efficiently and to the highest standard, with a minimal amount of fuss and the result has had the desired effect; it now looks fresh and spacious, which was exactly the brief given to John Radcliffe & Sons Ltd.

James Firth,
Tenant Investments

